

DUX MACHINERY CORPORATION

615 Lavoisier, Repentigny, Quebec
Canada J6A 7N2

www.duxmachinery.com

PH (+1) 450-581-8341

FX (+1) 450-581-5138

Mechanical Assembler and Mechanical Sub-Assembler

DUX Machinery Corporation is a fast paced, exciting work environment where our employees are able to custom design heavy duty mining equipment and see it assembled in our onsite manufacturing facilities. Most of our equipment is custom designed to suit our many customers varying needs so the work is always new and interesting.

Status: Permanent.

In collaboration with the Production Department the Mechanical Assembler and Mechanical Sub-Assembler will be primarily responsible for:

- Reading engineering drawings and work orders, as well as mechanical assembly, electric and hydraulic schematics
- Utilizing company provided torque wrenches, power and hand operated tools, fit, install and test variety of manufactured and purchased mechanical components to engineered specifications
- Assembling and installing hydraulic control systems, attach and route hydraulic hose assemblies
- Assisting electrical assembler with installation of electrical control panels, motors, cable routing and terminal function boxes
- Inspecting and testing various parts, hydraulic circuits to insure genuinely of product meets DUX and client's expectations
- Performing minor adjustments and corrections to finished products as per documented direction
- Maintaining accurate records

Requirements:

- Heavy-duty mechanic or mechanical technician or a technologist with 3 years and plus experience of heavy-duty mobile off-road equipment
- Good listener, willing to learn, be organized, work in a team, has positive attitude

We provide:

- Competitive hourly rate
- 40-hour week
- Excellent opportunity to grow with the company